REPORTS TO REVIEW	Principal, Parent group
DISCUSSION	Principal -

The principal provided a comprehensive update on the first quarter at Hollinger, highlighting staffing challenges and creative solutions, including the implementation of dual language and gifted programs. He discussed upcoming changes for Quarter 2, such as student reclassifications and staff teaching support for long-term substitutes. Mr. Jackson also shared positive developments, including successful extracurricular activities, improved discipline among new middle school students, and the launch of the Above and Beyond After School program for elementary students. He concluded by reflecting on the school community's resilience and support during difficult times, emphasizing the importance of trust and care in education.

Parents - the parent group reported on several fundraising activities and events. The group also mentioned ongoing paleta sales and the need for teacher support for the upcoming Halloween event on October 24th. They considered transitioning to selling cookies instead of paletas due to the changing weather.. The parent group also offered to help with snack bars for sports events and discussed the possibility of hosting a movie night in late November or December.
