IV. Reports

REPORTS TO REVIEW	Principal, Parent group
DISCUSSION	Principal -

Mr. Jackson reported on the school's improved state letter grade and discussed efforts to sustain academic growth. He highlighted the success of the Above and Beyond after-school program, which is aligned with Tier 3 instruction during the school day to address achievement gaps. The team is focusing on maximizing learning time in the three weeks before winter break, as this period is crucial for preparation for state testing and end-of-year assessments. Mr. Jackson also mentioned plans to launch student data binders in the new year to track growth and build student efficacy, expressing gratitude to staff, families, and students for their support.

Parents - The parent group reported on their fundraising activities, including paleta sales and holiday treats for the campus. They plan to host a movie night with crafts and hot chocolate next Friday, followed by a staff lunch the following week.
